Description

This hour glass shaped drum emulates the original Tama drum from Senegal, Africa.

Remo's inventive drum and drumhead experience makes it possible to bring this ancient instrument to the modern world!

Historically, Talking drum masters could actually send messages to others by striking the drum with a curve drum stick modulating the pitch by squeezing or pulling the strings.

Features:-Skyndeeep Ultratac Lizard graphic synthetic drumhead-Acousticon drum shell with Antique finish-6" diameter x 11" height-Traditional rope tuning

Mallet not included. Replacement heads are available.
