Description

The Humes & Berg Tuxedo 22 x 20" Bass Drum Bag, TX649 has become the industry standard by which all others are judged. These cases are designed to repel impact, assuring the musician safe arrival of his valuable equipment. Constructed with a durable cordura material, the finish on these cases is virtually indestructible. All seams are double stitched with a binding tape and all hardware is steel. These bags also feature a special 1/2" poly foam padding and heavy duty zippers. There is no finer drum bag made anywhere in the world today.
