Description

The Innovative Percussion David Friedman DF25 Marimba Mallets is a versatile mallet that possesses a wide palette of colors, speaking fully in all registers. It is perfect in an ensemble setting.

The David Friedman Series vibraphone and marimba mallets were designed for internationally acclaimed percussionist, composer, and educator, David Friedman. The marimba mallets are cord-wrapped, while the vibraphone models are wrapped with a synthetic yarn, and all models are built on rattan handles.
