Description

The Innovative Percussion David Friedman DF30 Vibraphone Mallets creates a full deep tone, yet is able to speak through an ensemble without being too percussive and is great for all instrumental settings.

The David Friedman Series vibraphone and marimba mallets were designed for internationally acclaimed percussionist, composer, and educator, David Friedman. The marimba mallets are cord-wrapped, while the vibraphone models are wrapped with a synthetic yarn, and all models are built on rattan handles.
