Description

The Vic Firth VICGLVXL Extra Large VicGloves Drumming Gloves are specially designed to protect the player's hands while improving their grip. All of this without sacrificing feel!

VicGloves are crafted in premium cabretta leather with ventilated synthetic mesh palm and back to stay cool. Stretch lycra between fingers provides great fit and ultimate comfort. And to top it all off, the unique synthetic rubber grip on the thumb and forefinger provides outstanding grip and control!

Play hard, protect your hands, and improve your grip, all while staying cool with the new VicGloves!

Available in sizes small, medium, large and extra-large.
